1. Message from Managing Director

Dear Colleagues,

Sanofi India Limited (“SIL”) started its journey in India in May 1956 under the name Hoechst Fedco Pharma Private Limited. Over the years, SIL has been known not only for its pharmaceutical products but is equally well known for its ethical business practices. We are committed to the welfare of the patients and maintain the trust of our partners (health care professionals and other stakeholders). To shoulder this responsibility we are all required to follow our values and have good corporate governance in all activities.

This whistle blower policy ensures that all employees have free access to appropriate management levels for bringing up any actual or potential issue/s which has/ have violated or potentially violate our policies or the local laws / industry code of conduct. I would like all of you to read and understand this policy. Please use this policy in the appropriate way to follow our values and protect the reputation of the Company.

Should you have any question regarding this policy please contact the Compliance Director.

Dr. Shailesh Ayyangar

2. Preamble

The Complaint Management Policy of the Sanofi Group (available on the Sanofi Intranet) has been in place since 2012 and applies to all Group employees. As Sanofi India Limited is a listed company whose shares are quoted on the stock exchanges in India, it is required to comply with certain specific provisions applicable to listed companies. The purpose of the present policy, applicable to employees of Sanofi India Limited, is to be consistent with the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Listing Agreement with the Stock Exchanges in India.

The Companies Act, 2013 and the Listing Agreement require our Company have a Whistle Blower policy and to establish a vigil mechanism for Members of the Board of Directors and employees to report concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Company's code of conduct or ethics policy. The mechanism should also provide for adequate safeguards against victimization of director(s)/ employee(s) who avail of the mechanism and also provide for direct access to the Chairman of the Audit Committee in exceptional cases.

3. Concern Reporting

3.1. Principle of Reporting:

If a Sanofi India Limited employee believes in good faith that a rule or one of the principles laid down in Sanofi Code of Ethics and policies has been or is about to be violated, he or she should inform his or her superior or the Compliance Department of his or her concerns regarding possible illegal act or ethical violation. Any employee, who has any concerns relating to actual or potential illegal or unethical practices in finance, accounting, internal control, free competition or the fight against corruption should report his/her concerns under this policy. When in doubt whether an activity or behavior is a violation or not, employee should report the same.

- Director- Compliance

5. Management Assurance

5.1. Identity of the Complainant

Members of the Board of Directors and employees are encouraged to report the incident by identifying themselves. Such identification helps the investigation process. In case the complainant decides not to disclose his/her identity, an ANONYMOUS report can be submitted. It is the responsibility of each person to report an incident regardless of the choice of disclosing or not disclosing his/ her identity. The identity of the complainant will be kept confidential if asked to do so and will be disclosed only if it becomes necessary for investigation purposes or in certain circumstances where it is legally required to be so disclosed.

5.2. No Retaliation

The Company assures that there will be no retaliatory action against any person who has reported any incident of non-compliance in good faith, using any appropriate channel of communication as provided for in this policy.

6. Report to Audit Committee

A quarterly report will be submitted to the Audit Committee by the Company Secretary on the number of complaints received in the preceding quarter, action taken on the complaints and results of investigations, if carried out.

7. Retention of Documents

All the documents in relation to concern received and gathered during investigations shall be kept by the Compliance Director for a period of five years.

8. Amendment

The Company may amend / modify this policy in whole or part from time to time, with the approval of the Audit Committee.
